THE COLOURFUL SEASON

From bright colours inspired by the Mediterranean to the delicate shades of naturalistic decor, today's tableware presents unusual shapes with echoes of tradition

Maria Clara Caglioti

1. The Libellula mug from the La Double J Housewives collection by La Double J is produced in collaboration with Ancap. The pattern is inspired by a late 19th-century botanical illustration.
2. Enamelled ceramic and metal vases from the Fusca collection by Constance Guisset for Bosa. The exuberant forms of the necks evoke a stage costume, a lion's mane, a calla lily flower.

3. All the fantasy and colour of Sicily in the toaster from the Sicily is my Love kitchen appliance collection by Dolce&Gabbana and Smeg.

4. The poetic play of colours in the hand-decorated Caravaggio sugar bowl and oval plate from the Villa Borghese collection by Coralla Maiuri.

5. Designer Marcantonio has created the Kintsugi table service for Seletti. The name refers to the traditional Japanese practice of repairing ceramics with gold, the material used for the veining around the bowl

1. The Days glasses from Ichendorf are designed by the Mist-o duo, Noa Ikeuchi from Japan and Italy's Tommaso Nani. Hand-blown glass with paste colours.

2. Plate with dish by Geminiano Cozzi Venezia 1765. In fine bone china, it reproduces the company's own 18th-century Feston e catena pattern, applied by hand in gold.

3. For cooking the perfect egg, the small Tegamino saucepan by Alessi, designed by Alessandro Mendini with Alex Mocika and input from food expert Alberto Gozzi.

4. Lantern is a portable, rechargeable LED light designed by Fabio Novembre for Kartell. Light projection is enhanced by a graphic design effect.
